Michigan

Service for The Blind
And Physically Handicapped

Introduction:

In the fall of 1998 the Michigan Library Association asked Michigan librarians to send in their three favorite adult fiction titles—those titles from this century, written or translated in English. The response was tremendous! Value was added to this list when the Michigan Network of Librarians serving the Blind and Physically Handicapped identified the books from the list that were available in alternative format.

This catalog contains only those books selected by Michigan librarians available in alternative format. These are the books that Michigan librarians identified as titles that they were most likely to recommend to a patron, a reading club, or a friend. We hope this list encourages you to explore new authors and titles, perhaps re-visit some old friends and to share YOUR top three “good reads”!

Any or all of this bibliography may be reproduced as desired. If you choose to republish this for mass distribution, please credit the Library of Michigan.

Book Annotations

Absalom, Absalom – RC 27313

Author: Faulkner, William

The rise and fall of a nineteenth-century Southern family is reconstructed by several narrators with differing views. A Southern gentleman attempts to found a dynasty but fails; he cannot see that human values are superior to social mores. 1986.

Accidental Tourist – RC 22961

Author: Tyler, Anne

Macon Leary leads a quiet, routine life until his young son is killed in a fast-food shop holdup and his wife of twenty years suddenly decides to leave him. Macon returns to his family's home and settles into a dull, soothing life with his brothers and sister—until he meets a dog trainer named Muriel Pritchett, who is as different from his wife as anyone could be. Some strong language. Bestseller. 1985.

Alias Grace – RC 42878

Author: Atwood, Margaret

A fictional portrait of Grace Marks, a sixteen-year-old Canadian domestic who was convicted in the murder of her employer and his mistress in 1843. In prison, Grace is hypnotized by a psychiatrist to help her recall the murders and reveal whether she is a monster or a victim. Violence and descriptions of sex. Bestseller. 1996.

All Quiet on the Western Front – RC 12312

Author: Remarque, Erich Maria

Classic World War I novel first published in 1929 relates the story of a young German private who, with three of his classmates, is taken away from school to serve in the trenches. Vividly written, the book expresses the suffering and futility of war. 1975.

All the Pretty Horses – RC 34043

Author: McCarthy, Cormac

Texas 1949. John Grady Cole, sixteen, is on the threshold of adulthood when his world turns upside down. His grandfather has died, and his mother has no desire to keep the 18,000-acre ranch, which is the only home and way of life John knows. With a friend he sets out for Mexico and finds work on another ranch. But John falls for the owner's daughter and finds himself in jail. Strong language and violence. Bestseller. 1993.

And Baby Will Fall – RC 27008, FD 27008

Author: Lewin, Michael Z.

This novel introduces Adele Buffington, a social worker and the girlfriend of Samson, one of Lewin's other private eyes. The plot involves a break-in at Adele's office, the disappearance of a client and her two children, and the death of a man mistaken for a former social worker. Some strong language and some descriptions of sex. 1988.

Angela's Ashes – RC 42805

Author: McCourt, Frank

Frank McCourt recollects his "miserable Irish Catholic childhood" in the squalor of Limerick. Absent of any support from his glib but shiftless alcoholic father, the family suffered hunger, cruelty, disease, and the death of children. McCourt recounts his story without rancor. Strong language. 1996.

Animal Dreams – RC 32451

Author: Kingsolver, Barbara

Codi returns to Arizona to teach high school and care for her aging father. Her life is complicated by efforts to save the town from environmental catastrophe, and the renewal of an old love affair with a Native American man. Meanwhile, her sister Hallie, in Nicaragua helping peasant farmers in their fight for social justice, is captured by the contras. Their story is about commitment and suspense. By the author of The Bean Trees. 1990.

Archangel – RC 46536

Author: Shin, Sharon

At the next Gloria, the song festival in praise of the god Jovah, Gabriel is to become the archangel, and his wife the angelica. That means he has only six months before the ceremony to find and wed the mortal woman Rachel, who is foreordained to be his wife. It has never occurred to Gabriel that she might refuse to marry him. For senior high readers. 1996.

As I Lay Dying – RC 11553

Author: Faulkner, William

A poor white family treks across the Mississippi countryside struggling with its own incompetence, flooding rivers, and buzzards to deliver its dead mother's body for burial in her hometown. Some strong language. 1964.

Ashworth Hall – RC 44638

Author: Perry, Anne

In the autumn of 1990 the country home of Charlotte Pitt's sister is the setting for a meeting between Protestants and Catholics to discuss the Irish question. But negotiations founder when a Protestant is found in bed with the wife of a Catholic, and the chairman is murdered. Superintendent Thomas Pitt, with his wife's assistance, once again solves the crime. Bestseller. 1997.

At Home in Mitford – RC 44194

Author: Karon, Jan

After years as a priest in the Southern village of Mitford, Father Tim wonders if he should move on. Then on the day a letter from the bishop tells him to "hang in there . . . give it a year," things begin to change, including an interest in his neighbor, Cynthia, and the arrival of Barnabas, a rather large dog. First book of the Mitford Series. Next book: A Light in the Window, RC 44195. 1994.

Beach Music – RC 40753

Author: Conroy, Pat

Jack McCall and his daughter, Leah, are living in Rome. They moved there following the suicide of his wife, Shyla, several years before. Theirs is a peaceful life, but everything changes when his sister-in-law and several old school friends arrive asking for his help with serious personal matters. Soon Jack must face the demons of his past. Some strong language and some explicit descriptions of sex. Bestseller. 1995.

Bean Trees, The – RC 27589, BR 09389

Author: Kingsolver, Barbara

Taylor Greer, a poor but plucky Kentucky girl with a sharp tongue, soft heart, and strong spirit, sets out to find a new life in the West. On the road, her flighty '55 Volkswagen temporarily "gives out" in the Oklahoma flatlands, and, while having her car fixed, she finds an abused Indian child in the front seat of the car. Taylor becomes the child's guardian, settles in Tucson, and meets wonderful friends who help her cope with her new responsibilities. 1988.

Beauty – RC 35097

Author: Tepper, Sheri

Tepper has taken the tale of Sleeping Beauty and added numerous other fairy-tale heroines and some environmental issues. Written in the form of a journal, this is Beauty's story of her life. Reared and taught by her father and aunts, she manages to escape the sleeping curse and begins a journey through time and space, from the fourteenth to the twenty-first centuries and from the elfish world to a future plundered earth. 1991.

Beekeeper's Apprentice – RC 39416

Author: King, Laurie R.

Mary Russell, an orphan living with her aunt, is only fifteen when she meets a semi-retired beekeeper named Sherlock Holmes. Fascinated by Mary's quick mind, the great detective becomes her mentor. Beloved: A Novel – RC 26026, FD 26026, BR 07074

Author: Morrison, Toni

Related in kaleidoscopic fashion and set in rural Ohio during the period immediately following the Civil War, this chronicle of slavery and its aftermath traces the life of Sethe, a former slave. Sethe has a secret in her past so horrific that it has alienated the community, driven off her two sons, isolated her surviving daughter, and threatened her new, loving relationship with Paul D., another former slave. Pulitzer Prize winner. 1987.

Beyond the Bedroom Wall – RD 08491

Author: Woiwode, Larry

This story, set in the plains of North Dakota, traces the Neumillers from the 1800s to the 1970s. The family includes the home-loving and biblically pure father, the mother who is a country woman of refinement, and their five children. Strong language and some explicit descriptions of sex. 1975.

Billy Gashade – RC 46700, BR 11641

Author: Estleman, Loren D

In 1863 a sixteen-year-old boy from a prominent family is caught up in the New York City Draft Riots. Fleeing retribution from the Tammany Hall gang, the boy becomes Billy Gashade, a musician in saloons and pleasure houses out West. Throughout his years wandering from place to place, Billy meets characters who become legends, such as Calamity Jane, Chief Crazy Horse, and Billy the Kid. Some violence. 1997.

Blue Highways: A Journey into America – RC 18700, FD 18700

Author: Least Heat Moon, William

With humor and compassion, the author, who is part Indian, recounts his travels of some 12,000 miles along the backroads of America in his live-in van. Seeking out such obscure places as Dimebox, Texas; Nameless, Tennessee; and Lookingglass, Oregon, and in search of himself, he finds an America that restores his beliefs. Some strong language. Bestseller. 1983.

Bonfire of the Vanities – RC 26040

Author: Wolfe, Tom

The arbiter of radical chic and macho fly boys attempts to satirize the grab-it-now Yuppie generation. The plot centers on the efforts of a socialite bond broker to escape responsibility for a freak accident that brings him into contact with unsavory elements of New York life: the justice system, the political hacks, the church, and the poor. Strong language and descriptions of sex. Bestseller. 1987.

Boy's Life – RC 33904, FD 33904

Author: McCammon, Robert
 Zephyr, Alabama, 1964. Cory and his father, Tom, are making milk deliveries when a car suddenly speeds past them, hurtles down an embankment, and plunges into a lake. Tom immediately leaps into the lake, hoping to save the driver. But when he reaches the car, he sees the face of murder. As Cory and his father seek answers to the killing of the unknown man, Cory finds himself in a world of adult evils. Violence and strong language. Bestseller. 1992.
